

2024 FANTASY LAW GUIDE

Draft Board

Nick Guarisco:

@FantasyLawGuy

KEY:

High Exposure: player on a lot of my teams

Quarterback

Tight End

Running Back

Wide Receiver

Kicker

Defense

Player's rank on this platform is lower than my ranking. Therefore, I am more likely to target and draft this player on this particular platform.

Player's rank on this platform is higher than my ranking. Therefore, it's unlikely that I'm drafting this player on this platform unless he slides.

Player's rank on this platform is fairly in line with my ranking, so I'm neutral toward this player on this platform. I'll draft in the right circumstance.

EXAMPLE: I am more likely to draft WR Drake London (#22) in ESPN leagues because his ADP on ESPN is 32nd overall, as opposed to Yahoo! leagues, where London's ADP on that platform (22nd overall) is right in line with my ranking.

APPLICATION: Rather than strictly adhering to the ranks on this Draft Board, use it as a guideline. For instance, you can maximize value in your draft by selecting Patrick Mahomes (#27) ahead of Jaylen Waddle (#23) knowing that Waddle's ADP is much later, allowing you to draft both!

WORKING THE BOARD: Deviations from the FLG Draft Board may be prudent depending on positions drafted, stacking, scoring/format, etc.

ROSTER CONSTRUCTION: First 10 Rds.: Draft 1 QB, 4 RBs, 4 WRs, and 1 TE (any order, but no QB/TE in first 3 rds.; do not to triple one position).

NOTES: Rankings assume default roster and scoring settings on ESPN & Yahoo! (PPR/half PPR).

TIPS: Stacking a QB-WR or QB-TE combination on the same team is preferable when possible. Any tie-breakers go to better offense.

UPDATES: Board will be UPDATED REGULARLY until kickoff.

Rd. 1

		FLG Pos. Rk.	ESPN ADP	Yahoo! ADP	Strategy Notes	Rd. 1
1	Christian McCaffrey, CAR	RB1	1	1	Handcuff: Prioritize RB Jordan Mason in Rd. 12.
	This generation's LaDainian Tomlinson.
2	Bijan Robinson, ATL	RB2	5	5	Handcuff: Prioritize RB Tyler Allgeier in Rd. 11.
	Everything adds up for breakout sophomore szn.
3	Breece Hall, NYJ	RB3	4	4
	Massive volume incoming for young, explosive dual-threat talent now two years removed from ACL.
4	CeeDee Lamb, DAL	WR1	3	3
	Held out for mega deal. Lamb's leverage: DAL has no other legit offensive threats. Ensures fantasy gold if healthy.
5	Tyreek Hill, MIA	WR2	2	2
	We saw the ceiling last szn, and it was lofty. More mouths to feed this year, but slate-breaker will get his.

6	Ja'Marr Chase, CIN	WR3	7	6
	Holding out for mega deal provides pause early.
7	Amon-Ra St. Brown, DET	WR4	6	8
	PPR cheatcode gobbles up targets in the middle of the field where Goff likes. 2.5 szns of elite per-game numbers.
8	A.J. Brown, PHI	WR5	9	9	Stack: Prioritize QB Jalen Hurts in Rd. 3
	Unlucky deep ball luck last szn suppressed final finish. Expecting bounceback in CeeDee role of new O. Remains in prime.
9	Jonathan Taylor, IND	RB4	10	10
	Healthy after injury-marred '23. Will be tough to defend on read-options w/ AR15. Rushing excellence, lacks receiving.
10	Garrett Wilson, NYJ	WR6	12	11
	Emerging talent could see 150+ targets as Rodgers's focal point (re: Davante Adams). Sky is the limit.

Rd. 2 FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 2

11	Justin Jefferson, MIN	WR7	8	7
	QB play has to be legit concern, esp. in the TD department.
12	Marvin Harrison Jr., ARI	WR8	21	16	Stack: Prioritize QB Kyle Murray in Rds. 5-6.
	Hope is the best receiver prospect in years reminds us of his Hall of Fame father.
13	Jahmyr Gibbs, DET	RB5	14	15
	Chris Johnson clone could go the distance with more receiving work. Hamstring a minor concern.
14	Derrick Henry, BAL	RB6	16	13
	Outlier who has consistently defied odds should find more running lanes in BAL.
15	Saquon Barkley, PHI	RB7	11	14
	Keeping this simple: Philly provides a substantial atmosphere upgrade over NYG despite less receiving work expected.
16	Isiah Pacheco, KC	RB8	17	18
	Clearly the guy at RB in Mahomes' offense.
17	Travis Etienne Jr., JAX	RB9	18	21	Handcuff: Draft RB Tank Bigsby in last round.
	Solid lead back in good offense.
18	De'Von Achane, MIA	RB10	31	25

Usually can grab this explosive speedster in Rd. 3.

19 Josh Jacobs, GB RB11 38 33 Handcuff: Draft RB Marshawn Lloyd near Pick 120.

Lead back in a strong offense. Should get goal line and receiving work.

20 Puka Nacua, LAR WR9 13 12

Outstanding rookie szn, but probably should be drafted closer to Cooper Kupp.

Rd. 3 FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 3

21 Kyren Williams, LAR RB12 15 17 Handcuff: Draft RB Blake Corum near Pick 100.

Dual-threat in historically RB1-friendly McVay offense. Drafting Blake Corum in Rd. 10 a necessary insurance policy.

22 Jalen Hurts, PHI QB1 28 37 Stack: Priority pick if you drafted WR A.J. Brown

Was on incredible pace (as usual) before injury derailed second half of season.

23 Drake London, ATL WR10 32 22

Substantial QB and OC upgrade should yield career year.

24 Jaylen Waddle, MIA WR11 49 36

I have Waddle on all of my teams. 100%. Incredible bargain in drafts. Contract year $. Contingent upside if Tyreek hurt.

25 Cooper Kupp, LAR WR12 44 26

Fantasy's #1 WR in PPG two years in a row prior to last year's injury-marred campaign. Upside worth the gamble.

26 Patrick Mahomes, KC QB2 23 40 Stack: Draft WR Rashee Rice and/or Xavier Worthy

Preparing for lift-off after down fantasy year. Added WRs Worthy and Brown to Rice and Kelce. Could hit 40 TDs.

27 Josh Allen, BUF QB3 25 31 Stack: Prioritize TE Dalton Kincaid in Rds. 5-6.

May take a step back without Stefon Diggs.

28 Lamar Jackson, BAL QB4 35 39 Stack: Prioritize TE Mark Andrews in Rds. 5-6.

Always strong when healthy. Gets Mark Andrews back.

29 Malik Nabers, NYG WR13 53 41

Explosive rookie could rack up 160+ targets and take the league by storm with decent QB play. Will he get it?

30 DJ Moore, CHI WR14 47 32 Stack: Draft QB Caleb Williams if you miss out on QBs

Continues to defy odds - great numbers despite miserable QB play. Williams will be his best yet. More target comp. this yr.

Rd. 4 FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 4

31 Chris Olave, NO WR15 19 23

Better real-life player than fantasy. Lack of target competition is great, but Carr is not.

32 Nico Collins, HOU WR16 33 29

Stefon Diggs adds competition, but unlike Diggs, Collins is in prime.

33 Davante Adams, LVR WR17 22 19

QB play and low-scoring, run-centered offense are problematic

34 D.K. Metcalf, SEA WR18 36 34

Amid prime. Many "just-missed" TD opps last szn. But target comp problematic.

35 Deebo Samuel, SF WR19 43 28

Slate-breaker when healthy. Expect inconsistency with spiked weeks.

36 Anthony Richardson, IND QB5 48 46 Handcuff: Draft RB Zach Charbonnet near pick 100.

Flashed QB1 ability in 4 games last szn due to elite rushing. League-winning worth a mid-round gamble.

37 Ken Walker III, SEA RB13 45 49 Handcuff: Draft RB Ray Davis in final rounds.

New, exciting coaching staff has talked up homerun-hitting Walker as 3-down back.

38 James Cook, BUF RB14 30 45

2023 breakout finished szn strongly but Bills drafted reinforcement. Worried about goal w/ Ray Davis & Josh Allen.

39 Joe Mixon, HOU RB15 26 42

Potential 3-down back in attractive environment.

40 Rashee Rice, KC WR20 76 62 Stack: Priority pick if your QB is Mahomes

Small suspension looming, but threat is suppressing his ADP too much. Could be second-year stud for Mahomes.

Rd. 5 FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 5

41 Sam LaPorta, DET TE1 27 30

Expecting TD regression, but his youth and play-caller push him atop what I consider a flat tier 1 at TE

42 Travis Kelce, KC TE2 20 27

New weapons at WR may allow Chiefs to save Kelce's usage for money downs (red zone, 3rd down) and playoffs.

43	Trey McBride, ARI	TE4	50	48	Stack: Prioritize QB Kyler Murray soon.
	TE1 in PPG after taking over as starter midseason. Harrison Jr. will make McBride clear No. 2 target.
44	Mark Andrews, BAL	TE3	41	54	Stack: Priority pick if your QB is Lamar Jackson
	Legit threat for double digit TDs as focal passing point in red zone, but health has been an issue.
45	Dalton Kincaid, BUF	TE5	54	66	Stack: Priority pick if your QB is Josh Allen
	Loss of Stefon Diggs, no other proven WRs means talented Kincaid (a 2023 1st rounder) will be featured.
46	James Conner, ARI	RB16	68	63
	Many overlooking late-season dominance (RB1 in final 5). Major health risk worth cost. Contract year $. Stealing in 6th+.
47	Raheem Mostert, MIA	RB17	90	64
	ADP very mispriced bc he's 32. 20 TDs last szn and role relatively unchanged. We can have TD regression and still hit big.
48	Rachaad White, TB	RB18	37	44
	Thrived on volume last szn, and I have mild concern new coaching staff won't replicate that usage.
49	DeVonta Smith, PHI	WR21	46	48	Stack: Priority pick if your QB is Jalen Hurts
	Better real-life player than fantasy. Expect inconsistency but several spiked weeks.
50	Brandon Aiyuk, SF	WR22	40	24
	Low ranking due to uncertainty about hold out situation and/or potential trade.

Rd. 6

FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 6

51	Calvin Ridley, TEN	WR23	61	74
	One year removed from full-szn absence, and signed big $ to play the Ja'Marr Chase role in new O. Will Levis is the QB though.
52	Terry McLaurin, WAS	WR24	78	56	Stack: Draft QB Jayden Daniels if you miss out on QBs
	Playing style seems to mesh well w/ rookie QB Jayden Daniels. WAS has ZERO target competition outside of scary Terry.
53	Tee Higgins, CIN	WR25	62	60	Stack: Prioritize QB Joe Burrow if you do not have a QB.
	Contract year. Burrow healthier. Contingent upside if Chase misses time w/ holdout, injury.
54	Stefon Diggs, BUF	WR26	34	47
	Frigid finish in '23 after scorching start. Is he the #3 WR (Collins, Dell) or the #1? Hard to gauge. Can Stroud support all 3?

55	Mike Evans, TB	WR27	29	20
Everything went right in 2023, but I'm expecting some regression for Baker after departure of QB whisperer OC Dave Canales.
56	Zay Flowers, BAL	WR28	56	57	Stack: Priority pick if your QB is Lamar Jackson
BAL's top WR by solid margin, but volume suppressed by TE Andrews' health, signing RB Derrick Henry
57	Chris Godwin, TB	WR29	73	75
Projecting major rebound szn from Godwin, who should move into slot in new offense where he thrives.
58	Michael Pittman Jr., IND	WR30	24	35
Worried that last year's dink-and-dunk Minshew O suited Pittman better than Richardson. RB Taylor healthier. Drafted 2nd rd. WR.
59	Amari Cooper, CLE	WR31	71	43
Balled out at the end of last szn, but a lot of it was w/ Flacco at QB. Browns should throw often. Odd hold out dings him a little.
60	Alvin Kamara, NO	RB19	39	55
Age, new system concerns, but poor O-Line may lead to dumpoffs (PPR+). Kendre Miller out of the equation helps. Contract year $.

Rd. 7 FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 7

61	Kyle Pitts, ATL	TE6	60	76
Is this finally the year the unicorn talent shows out? Finally has a QB. I'm somewhat in. Using drafters' remorse against them.
62	Kyler Murray, ARI	QB6	72	50	Stack: Priority pick if drafted WR Harrison, TE McBride
My favorite QB value this yr. Averaged 18 PPG (QB9 pace) coming off the ACL last szn w/o Harrison. Fired up for return to glory.
63	C.J. Stroud, HOU	QB7	42	53
Pass catchers and creative OC should carry Stroud to new heights. Lack of rushing likely lowers ceiling to outside of Top-3.
64	Dak Prescott, DAL	QB8	65	72	Stack: Priority pick if drafted WR CeeDee Lamb
Consistently steady. Finished very strongly last szn, but relying heavily on Lamb's health.
65	Joe Burrow, CIN	QB9	52	69	Stack: Priority pick if drafted WRs Chase and/or Higgins
Return to full health (wrist) should allow for safe Top-10 finish. OL has improved.
66	George Kittle, SF	TE7	51	65
Can provide spiked weeks but consistency minimized by other SF weapons. True breakout unlikely without Aiyuk/Deebo injury.
67	Evan Engram, JAX	TE8	58	89

110+ catches last yr mainly due to supporting cast injuries, but remains Lawrence's dumpoff, RZ target. TE plays big role in Pederson O

68 Tank Dell, HOU WR36 59 52

Not sure how to divvy up Texans' WRs w/ Collins & Diggs. Stroud has legit connection, but Dell coming off major injury (see Pollard last

69 Christian Kirk, JAX WR32 88 71

Jags added extra WRs, but Kirk should remain Lawrence's top target.

70 George Pickens, PIT WR33 66 51

Stack: Priority pick if drafted QB Mahomes

Athletic, big-play threat set up to receive volume, but OC Arthur Smith may mitigate potential, but Russ loves 50/50 lobs (see Sutton).

Rd. 8 FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 8

71 Diontae Johnson, CAR WR34 92 68

Stack: Draft QB Trevor Lawrence late if punting QB.

HC Canales known as QB whisperer (see Geno, Baker). Wants to feature Johnson. Contract year $. Lots of garbage time in CAR.

72 Xavier Worthy, KC WR35 102 97

KC traded up for fastest Combine WR ever. More nuance to his game than go-routes. Mahomes-to-Worthy may be lethal, big-play con

73 Najee Harris, PIT RB20 80 67

If new OC Arthur Smith helps anything, it's the run game. Warren hurt (hamstring) to open szn. Contract year $.

74 David Montgomery, DET RB21 64 59

Lions expected to give Jahmyr Gibbs a larger role. 10 RUTDs still in play for Montgomery. Contingent upside if Gibbs goes down.

75 Rhamondre Stevenson, NE RB22 57 61

Underrated talent, but being beholden to Pats' offense a tough pill to swallow. Should receive 3D and GL work though.

76 Aaron Jones, MIN RB23 55 58

Injury history + age has led to decline in efficiency. Now the 1A back for team with very low rushing numbers and QB downgrade.

77 Javonte Williams, DEN RB26 93 82

Efficiency plummeted following complicated ACL injury last yr. Expecting revival in run game. Contract year $.

78 Tony Pollard, TEN RB27 91 83

My bet to lead the Titans in rushing. One year removed from major injury, should regain footing. Bump up in PPR formats.

79 Caleb Williams, CHI QB10 105 101

Priority pick if drafted WR Moore and/or Odunze

Everything sets up nicely for once-in-decade prospect. Moore/Allen/Odunze/Swift. Run ability. Slight concern about OC Waldron.

80 Jayden Daniels, WAS QB11 110 80 Stack: Priority pick if drafted WR McLaurin

Suboptimal surroundings outside of McLaurin. Bad O-Line. Scrambling ability should keep fantasy #s float.

Rd. 9 FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 9

81 Zack Moss, CIN RB24 101 91

My bet to be Bengals' primary runner, goal line back. This provides 10 TD upside. Can he hold off Chase Brown in pass game?

82 Devin Singletary, NYG RB25 110 114

Like it or not, Giants signed him to do it all, play Barkley role. Will be ugly at times, but Singletary familiar w/ Daboll offense (BUF)

83 Zamir White, LVR RB28 67 70

Raiders want White (bulked up) getting 20 carries a game. Doubtful gamescript allows. Finished strongly. Minimal receptions.

84 D'Andre Swift, CHI RB29 63 78

May lead Bears in RB touches, but has been more suited as role player.

85 Christian Watson, GB WR37 94 92

Expecting bounce back after injury-marred (hamstring) szn. Showed big-play, scoring ability as a rookie.

86 Rome Odunze, CHI WR38 109 85 Stack: Draft QB Caleb Williams if punting QBs.

Slow start likely. Keep stashed as he overtakes Keenan Allen as Bears' #2 WR by season's end. #9 overall pick in talented WR class.

87 Courtland Sutton, DEN WR39 116 98

Still sits atop Broncos receiver depth chart. Perhaps Sean Payton uses Sutton in Colston role. Rookie QB lowers ceiling.

88 Jameson Williams, DET WR40 123 107

Williams has impressed team this offseason. Deep threat behind ARSB, LaPorta, Gibbs in pecking order, but splash plays coming.

89 Jordan Addison, MIN WR41 113 104

QB downgrade, several fluky deep TDs last szn, and possible suspension. But clear-cut #2 WR for dome team w/o Hocken:

90 Jaxon Smith-Njigba, SEA WR42 97 90

Uptick expected this yr in new offense that should better utilize JSN's skillset. Lockett has started to show signs of decline.

Rd. 10 FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes Rd. 10

91 David Njoku, CLE TE9 75 99

A top-3 TE in second half of last szn, though most was w/ Flacco at QB. CLE wants to feature he and Cooper. Still young and athletic.

92	Marquise Brown, KC	WR43	117	93	Stash: Draft only if league has IR spots.
	Will miss first few weeks of season (shoulder), but Mahomes talked him up big time b4 injury. Contract year $.
93	Brian Thomas Jr., JAX	WR44	131	100
	Set to open szn in WR rotation. Also set up to finish strongly. Patience needed but talented deep threat could be a closer.
94	DeAndre Hopkins, TEN	WR45	104	106	Stash: Draft only if league has IR spots.
	Will miss first few weeks of season (leg), but Titans expected to throw often w/ risk-taking QB (re: contested catches).
95	Jayden Reed, GB	WR46	86	79
	Impressively found end zone 10 times last yr w/ great efficiency, but regression looming. Plenty of target comp.
96	Tyjae Spears, TEN	RB30	95	86
	Underrated talent staring at timeshare w/ Tony Pollard.
97	Rico Dowdle, DAL	RB31	165+	125
	Someone on Cowboys (a top 10 offense) is undervalued at RB. This is a bet against Zeke. Def worth a dart throw late.
98	Jordan Love, GB	QB12	70	73
	TD regression could hit after very strong second half, but Love set up nicely in multi-layered offense.
99	Jonathon Brooks, CAR	RB32	128	95	Stash: Draft only if league has IR spots
	Missing the first four weeks (ACL), and there are fears of CAR waiting for '25, but worth taking for closing relevance.
100	Brock Bowers, LVR	TE10	107	122
	Rookie TEs rarely hit, but LVR drafted him 13th overall despite presence of TE Mayer. Do they have a plan? Minshew magic?

Rds. 11-17 - Picks 100+

(Expected roster construction through 10 rounds: 1 QB, 4 RBs, 4 WRs, and 1 TE)

Running Back Sleepers

(Draft 2-3 between Rds. 10-17. Prioritize Sleeper RBs over Sleeper WRs)

FLG Pos. Rk. ESPN ADP Yahoo! ADP Strategy Notes

1	Blake Corum, LAR	RB33	122	121	Handcuff: Must-Draft if rostering Kyren Williams.
---	-------------------------	-------------	------------	------------	---

League-winning upside if Kyren Williams goes down. History says that's a good bet. I want Corum on all my teams.

2 Tyler Allgeier, ATL RB34 151 151 Handcuff: Must-Draft if rostering Bijan Robinson.

Assumes valuable 3-down role if Bijan Robinson goes down. May have some standalone value if he cuts into red zone work.

3 Zach Charbonnet, SEA RB35 138 128 Handcuff: Must-Draft if rostering Ken Walker.

Assumes valuable 3-down role if Kenneth Walker goes down.

4 Jordan Mason, SF RB38 165+ 165+ Handcuff: Must-Draft if rostering CMC

Reports indicate strong camp so far. CMC workload, Mitchell injury, friendly SF O makes Mason an elite handcuff.

5 Marshawn Lloyd, GB RB36 165+ 164

Once healthy (hip), versatile rookie will be Josh Jacob's direct backup. Role may increase as season progresses. Viable handcuff too.

6 Ty Chandler, MIN RB37 160 139

Speedster worth a flier considering Aaron Jones' injury history + age.

7 Ray Davis, BUF RB39 165+ 165+ Handcuff: Must-Draft if rostering James Cook.

Assuming he can beat out Ty Johnson, Davis can receive GL and 3D work in potent Buffalo offense if Cook goes down.

8 Braelon Allen, NYJ RB40 165+ 165+ Handcuff: Must-Draft if rostering Breece Hall.

Set to be Breece Hall's primary backup. Has displayed tackle-breaking ability in pre-szn.

9 Tank Bigsby, JAX RB41 165+ 165+ Handcuff: Must-Draft if rostering Etienne.

By all accounts, Bigsby has shined as Etienne's backup this offszn. Would easily be Jags' early down, GL back w/ ETN injury.

10 Bucky Irving, TB RB42 165+ 165+

New regime drafted Irving to be change-of-pace, receiving specialist for Rachaad White. Skill set conducive to full-PPR leagues.

Wide Receiver Sleepers (Draft 2 between Rds. 12-17)

		FLG Pos. Rk.	ESPN ADP	Yahoo! ADP	Strategy Notes
1	Darnell Mooney, ATL	WR50	149	165+	Pick 120+
	Underrated talent gets QB upgrade. Clear WR2 in ATL behind London. Speed makes him big-play threat in friendly dome environment.
2	Khalil Shakir, BUF	WR51	157	127	Pick 120+

Likely part of 4-man WR rotation in Buffalo. Has flashed playmaking ability. Curtis Samuel already hurt. Josh Allen needs a WR.

3 Joshua Palmer, LAC      WR52      165+      130      Pick 120+

Lack of talent, low Chargers pass volume lowers upside, but Palmer could be go-to guy for great QB Hebert. WR depth chart barren.

4 Brandin Cooks, DAL      WR53      165+      142      Pick 140+

Sits in a pretty attractive position as Dak's clear #2 target. What if something happens to CeeDee?

5 Dontayvion Wicks, GB      WR54      165+      137      Pick 150+

Patience required here, but it's a bet on talent (and other GB WR injuries). Could be a strong closer if things break right.

Defenses & Kickers

(Draft 1 of each in the final 3 rounds. Listed in order in which I'd draft them)

FLG Pos. Rk.   ESPN ADP   Yahoo! ADP   Strategy Notes

1 Justin Tucker, BAL      K1      K1      K1      Pick 140+

GOAT kicker has been a reliable fantasy option for what feels like decades now. Being attached to MVP Lamar Jackson helps scoring or

2 Brandon Aubrey, DAL      K2      K2      K10      Pick 140+

Last year's top K has incredible range and plays indoors on a good team.

3 Harrison Butker, KC      K3      K1      K4      Pick 140+

Obviously, a kicker attached to a Mahomes-led offense has a high probability of being in scoring position often.

4 Dallas Cowboys DST      DST1      DST15      DST14      Pick 140+

Last year's top DST (shoutout to last year's FLG) has attractive opening matchups: CLE, NO, NYG and PIT in 4 of first 5 games.

5 New York Jets DST      DST2      DST15      DST14      Pick 140+

Extremely deep and talented D-Line + CB Sauce. After SF wk 1, gets very soft slate: TEN, NE, DEN, MIN, PIT, NE in first half of szn.

6 Evan McPherson, CIN      K4      K7      K5      Last Round

Potent offense led by now-healthy Burrow. Considered an elite option two years ago.

7 Younghoe Koo, ATL      K5      K11      K9      Last Round

Potent offense. Easy opponents. 14+ games indoors.

8 Jason Sanders, MIA      K10      K11      K9      Last Round

Tight End Sleepers

(Draft 1 in final 4 rounds IF you did not take TEs 1-8)

		FLG Pos. Rk.	ESPN ADP	Yahoo! ADP	Strategy Notes
1	Pat Freiermuth, PIT	TE12	141	129	Pick 120+ Arthur Smith's offenses heavily utilize multiple TEs. Can be annoying, but Freiermuth the most talented. Contract year $.
2	Taysom Hill, NO	TE13	162	165+	Pick 120+ Nice punt-TE play if you miss out on run. Hill lining up out wide often this pre-szn. Saints need weapons after Olave.
3	Hunter Henry, NE	TE15	165+	163	Pick 150+ Abysmal QB play expected, but no legitimate WRs in NE, and new staff's O has historically favored TE position. Decent dart throw.
4	Luke Musgrave, GB	TE16	165+	133	Pick 150+ Could get extra run w/ fellow Packer TE Kraft injured rn. Downfield receiving ability is evident, but many mouths to feed in GB.
5	Noah Fant, SEA	TE17	165+	156	Pick 150+ Target comp. is steep, but Fant has athleticism and receiving chops (former 1st Rd. pick), and he sets up nicely in new offense.
6	Juwan Johnson, NO	TE18	165+	165+	Pick 150+ Offseason foot injury tanked ADP (started at TE12-ish), but he should be good to for wk 1. Now a value. Contract year $.

Backup Quarterbacks

(Draft 1 or 2 in Super Flex formats. Otherwise, it is NOT NECESSARY to draft a backup QB)

		FLG Pos. Rk.	ESPN ADP	Yahoo! ADP	Strategy Notes
1	Trevor Lawrence, JAX	QB13	152	115	Great Backup QB

One of my favorite picks in FF, esp. as a punt QB play, a QB2 in Super Flex leagues, or even a late-rd. backup to AR15. Positive regression

2 Deshaun Watson, CLE QB16 159 148 Great Backup QB

Despite atrocious play in reality, Watson wasn't bad in fantasy PPG in healthy games last szn. Shoulder presumably OK. CLE will run spread O sans (

3 Geno Smith, SEA QB22 165+ 140 Only for Super Flex

O-Line concerns, but revamped offensive system exciting w/ 3 receiving playmakers, Metcalf, Lockett, and JSN. Recall strong 2022 szn.

4 Sam Darnold, MIN QB23 165+ 165+ Only for Super Flex

Kevin O'Connell's system should make him look better than he is. Jefferson, Addison highlight a nice supporting cast. Contract year $.

5 Bo Nix, DEN QB24 165+ 165+ Only for Super Flex

Accurate game-manager will be better than people think under Payton. Underrated rushing ability will provide some floor.
